FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Frankie Flowers says “Get Growing!”

Monday, February 7th, 2011 (Kitchener, ON) – Did you ever wish that you could turn your thumb green and create a garden to be proud of? City TV gardening expert Frankie Flowers, can “show you how” at the Kitchener-Waterloo Home & Garden Show with his basics of gardening. The 29th annual home and garden show opens at the Kitchener Auditorium Complex on Friday, March 25, 2011 and runs through Sunday, March 27, 2011.

Frankie Flowers, who will be on the stage on Saturday, March 26th, reaches over one million viewers each week as the gardening expert for BT Toronto, Cityline and City TV News. His new book, Get Growing, is designed to coach all levels through the basics of getting a garden growing. It provides a solid foundation for building a beautiful ornamental garden, a healthy, natural lawn and a bountiful vegetable garden

Throughout the three days, professionals will inform and entertain on stage at the Rogers Theatre. Show visitors are encouraged to attend and “Ask the Experts” their questions about decorating, renovating, and landscaping.

The KW Home & Garden Show is the largest and most successful home and garden show in the region. More than 250 booths, filling two arenas, display a vast array of products for the home and garden including kitchens and baths, flooring, roofing, windows and doors, heating and air systems, fireplaces, spas and leisure products, sunrooms, landscaping, smart technology and much more.

The KW Home & Garden Show returns to the Kitchener Memorial Auditorium Complex from March 25 – 27, 2011. Regular Admission: Adults (18+) $8.00; Seniors (65+) and Youth (13 – 17) $6.00; and Children (under 13) free when accompanied by an adult. Admission discount coupons will be available in the local newspapers and on the show’s website www.kwhgs.ca .

Show Hours: Friday, March 25 – noon to 7pm; Saturday, March 26 – 10am to 7pm; and Sunday, March 27 – 10am to 5pm.
