

Celebrate 35 Years at the 2017 KW Home & Garden Show!

Join us for the 35th annual Kitchener-Waterloo Home and Garden Show, sponsored by the Waterloo chapter of Landscape Ontario. The show runs from Friday, March 31st to Sunday, April 2nd at the Kitchener Memorial Auditorium Complex.

Home and garden professionals take the stage daily with entertaining workshops and information sessions on the Rogers Theatre stage.

Stage Presentations include:

Tricks of the Trade by Shawn Monteith, Canada's Handyman

New Plants and Ideas for Spring Gardens by Denis Flanagan, Landscape Ontario

Outdoor Trends for 2017 by Dave Van Dam, Monarch Landscape

Fire, Smoke and CO Alarm Updates by John Coish & Jeff Wildfang, Direct Detect

Back by popular demand, Landscape Ontario's (Waterloo Chapter) members once again feature individual displays to show visitors new ideas for landscaping. Experts are on-hand to answer questions and help you plan your garden makeover.

The KW Home & Garden show features more than 250 booths, filling two arenas, offering a vast array of products for your home and garden. These include kitchens, baths, flooring, roofing, windows, doors, sunrooms, landscaping, air systems and much more.

Admission discount coupons are available on the show website at www.kwhgs.ca and in the local papers.

Show Hours: Friday: 12 Noon to 7pm; Saturday: 10am to 7pm; Sunday: 10 am to 5pm.

For more information, please visit the show's website at www.kwhgs.ca

Contact:

Georgia Prassas, Show Producer

Toll free: 1-877-961-2999, info@kwhgs.ca