Tuesday, February 7, 2012 (Kitchener, ON) – As Spring comes to Canada once again, so does the Kitchener-Waterloo Home & Garden Show (KWHGS), to celebrate its thirtieth year of bringing everything for your house and garden under one roof. KWHGS, the region's largest and most popular home and garden show returns to the Kitchener Memorial Auditorium Complex (The Aud) from Friday, March 23, 2012 to Sunday, March 25, 2012.

Throughout the three days, professionals inform and entertain on stage at the Rogers Theatre. Show visitors are encouraged to attend and "Ask the Experts" their questions about decorating, renovating, and landscaping. This year's special guest is Frankie Flowers, who will be on the stage on Saturday, March 24th. Frankie reaches over one million viewers each week as the gardening expert for BT Toronto, Cityline and City TV News. His latest book, Pot it Up! presents 150 inspiring, beautiful and sometimes surprising container ideas to get your juices flowing.

Back by popular demand, Landscape Ontario's (Waterloo Chapter) members will once again create several feature gardens to "wow" visitors and give exciting new ideas for landscaping.

KWHGS, celebrating 30 years in 2012, is the largest and most successful home and garden show in the region.
